Constituting America engages and educates Americans on the principles of the U.S. Constitution through dynamic civic and cultural programs. Its highly responsive donors are deeply committed to preserving constitutional liberties, individual rights, and the rule of law.

The organization positions itself as a leading solution to the growing gap in civics education, delivering impactful programs like the George Washington Speaking Initiative, which brings constitutional education directly into schools. Messaging emphasizes American exceptionalism, the importance of the Bill of Rights, and the role of an informed citizenry in preserving freedom.

This file offers strong appeal for like-minded organizations seeking engaged, education-driven donors who respond to messaging focused on freedom, limited government, and active citizenship.
