

Dedicated Charitable Donors

This is a masterfile consisting of donors from some of America's finest Conservative/Republican organizations. They want to bring about positive principles today and for future generations!

These donors want to improve the lives of those less fortunate and support children's charities and social causes. They want to look after our veteran's and are concerned about senior citizen rights and benefits. They also support traditional family values.

Because this file has a high percentage of Senior donors, it would be a great test for health mailers who provide education and research for medical diseases and ailments.
