Advancing Christian Education
www.Herzogfoundation.com

The Stanley M. Herzog Charitable Foundation’s mission is to catalyze and accelerate the development of quality Christ-centered K-12 education so that families and culture flourish. They seek to identify areas of growth and gaps in the Christian education space to catalyze effective and scalable programs across the nation. Their mission is lived out by providing programs such as online content, up-to-date news, training and events, grants, and hands-on organizational improvement initiatives.

Donors to Herzog Foundation care deeply about Christ-centered education. They believe children should be immersed in Christ-centered teaching on a daily basis. These donors give to organizations that fight for parents’ rights in education, biblical values in schools and government, as well as organizations who stand for strong family values. These are mission-driven donors.
