

Liberty Counsel

Liberty Counsel (LC), founded in 1989, is an international nonprofit litigation, education, and policy organization dedicated to advancing religious freedom, the sanctity of life, and the protection of traditional marriage. They also encourage a pro-Israel stance. The founder and chairman, Mat Staver, has argued several landmark cases before the Supreme Court and represented Kim Davis who fought against issuing marriage licenses to same sex couples.

LC donors are strong Christians who want to restore the culture and by preserving our constitutional rights and freedoms, defending traditional values and protecting the family. These donors support our God given rights to prayer and public religious expression, the use of "Under God" in our Pledge of Allegiance, and military religious freedoms.
