Red Wave Donors stood strong in 2022, helped deliver decisive victories in 2024—including reclaiming the Senate, expanding Republican influence in state governments, and riding a surge in battleground states—and are now gearing up for 2026 with growing momentum.

They believe deeply in the promise of America: in freedom of speech and religion, traditional family values, and the right to defend oneself. They see those pillars under pressure—through court-packing schemes, radical school curricula, attacks on national heritage, and weakening of American industry.

These donors won't stand by. They are already investing in conservative causes, knowing that 2026 is more than just another election—it's a chance to cement the gains of 2024, protect our freedoms, and ensure a nation where citizens thrive.
