

Red Wave Donors

These multi-donors supported the 2022 Republican candidates across the country during the last election cycle.

Red Wave Donors believe the United States of America is the greatest country in the world, but our fundamental freedoms that are the heart of our society – freedom of speech, freedom of religion, traditional family values, the right to keep and bear arms - are under attack from within. The Democratic party wants to pack the court so they get what they want; they are erasing history, indoctrinating our children in the classroom, and are killing American manufacturing jobs.

These proud American donors have not given up, and will support many Conservative appeals, and believe their donations will make a difference for future elections AND importantly, the survival of the American citizen.
