This file is built from a highly responsive national Christian political mailer, comprised of citizens who are among the leaders in restoring America's public policy to its Judeo-Christian heritage. These donors believe deeply in the sacredness of human life, the sanctity of marriage, and the central role of family in our society.

They contribute generously to organizations defending religious liberty, advancing traditional family values, and championing faith-based public policy. This proven donor base is ideal for pro-life, pro-family, religious freedom, and conservative political appeals.
